Introduction

Do you know why you picked up this cat deck? There's a good chance that one of these cards called out to you. It's widely believed that cats will choose their human companions, and one of the felines in this deck has selected you.

Considered still somewhat wild, the cat aura resides in both this world and the spiritual realm. It offers energies that ward off negative vibrations, while bringing good luck, protection, comfort and support. It's also helpful in attracting companionship. A cat's natural magic may even bolster and enhance your own innate psychic abilities.

As you scan these cards to discover your personal favorite, notice the gentle messages each has to offer. Culled from thousands of years of legends from ancient Egypt, the Far East, Asia and Europe, these powerful thoughts are meant to guide and open you to the answers that you seek.

1. Goddess

Bastet

Message: Align with light and spirit. Can you feel your intuition welling up from your secret self? Your unique energies are connecting you with phenomenal insights. Listen to them.

You are also being called to be especially mindful of your home and loved ones. Nurture and protect them.

Mythos: Bastet, the Ancient Egyptian feline goddess, answers questions intuitively. Sit quietly and pay close attention. What's going on around you? What are you feeling? What advice can you hear welling up from deep inside? Bastet offers counsel on and closely guards women's secrets. Ask for guidance in matters of the heart, home, children and loved ones. She also invites you to enjoy the other gifts she brings: protection, pleasure, health, and high intuition.

About the Abyssinian Cat

The Abyssinian is thought to be one of the oldest domestic cat breeds in the world. A favorite of Ancient Egyptian pharaohs, the Abys cat's likeness is found in paintings and sculptures often representing the Egyptian goddess Bastet (Bast).

Mythos: Macak invites you to experience the magic of discovery in the ordinary. He advises becoming more curiously observant. You will find yourself gathering electric answers and divining the secrets of the world around you.

Ask a question, and when the question is answered, what's the next query that comes from the first? That deserves more information too. Delve deep. You are exploring the marvelous happenings of an ordinary world.

About Macak Nikola Tesla's Black Cat

Nikola Tesla, father of Alternating Current (AC electricity) as well as many other important electric-related inventions, credited his boyhood family cat for arousing his interest in electricity. For it was stroking his cat Macak's back, that he first observed static electricity.

16. Self-Worth

Ancient Royalty

Message: You are more than good enough. You are called to sense the deep internal feeling of belonging and love from those around you.

You are treasured.

Mythos: Look deep into this cat's eyes...can you see its magic? Embrace the difference you present to the world. Kahoo Manee whispers that you are created with unique skills and talents, and you may also show, like her, a physical oddity. She reminds you that you are more than good enough. Surround yourself with those who will cherish you and nurture your innermost feelings of belonging and love.

SAMPLE About Kahoo Manee

An ancient Siamese (Thai) royal, this pure white cat with heterochromia iridum, or multicolored eyes, is mentioned in Tamra Maew, or Cat Book Poems. So valued and precious were these exotic felines, that the king of Siam ordered they be gathered and secreted away so no European eyes would see them.

17. Decision Looming

Gray Guide

Message: There's an equal balance of both good and bad. Avoid confusion. Take care of what you let into your heart.

Mythos: Appearing to guide you through a difficult decision, Chartreux's wizardry assists in making sense of messages the universe is sending you. He reminds you that some decisions are not clear cut as being good or bad. He is a quiet cat, and requires that you sit silently and attentively to receive his answers. When they come, he advises that you weigh those answers in your heart and judge which way the balance tips.

About Chartreux: Wine or Wool?

The exact origins of this mysterious blue-gray, short-haired cat are still unknown. Some say the Chartreux were bred by Carthusian monks at the Grande Chartreuse Monastery in Southeastern France. The monks were famous for their distilled Elixir Vegetal de la Grande-Chartreuse and gave the felines the same name. Others say that the Chartreux came from Spain, pointing out that their thick wooly coats resemble la pile des Chartreux, a luxurious Spanish wool.
