HOW TO USE THE CARDS

SIT QUIETLY with the cards in your hands. Visualise the white light of the Universe flowing into the room, swirling all around you. Breathe in the light, knowing it is filled with unconditional love and healing. Now, in a quiet, gentle voice in your mind, form the question you would like to ask. For the best results, do not word a question in a yes or no format, such as, “Will my boyfriend and I get married?” Ask yourself what it is that you really want to know and change the question slightly. For example, “What is the long-term view of my relationship with John?” Be specific and if you are asking about someone, use their name. By changing the wording you go beyond your current expectations, open yourself to all possibilities, engage your creativity and give yourself choices.

CHOOSING YOUR CARDS

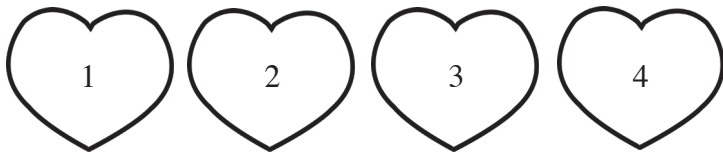

Start to shuffle the cards as you formulate the question in your mind. If you don't have a question, you can leave your message up to the Universe, knowing the information will always be for your highest growth with love. You may like to cut the deck if this feels right. You can select your cards from the top or fan them out and choose from anywhere in the deck. The more you play with your cards, the sooner you will find the way that is good for you. Remember there is no right or wrong. There just is. When you do a reading for another person, the information is just as important for you. It will reflect an aspect of your life. The query may be different, but the message is as pertinent to you as it is for them.

ONE-CARD READING

Choose one card to give you your message for the day, for clarity on a situation or an answer to a question.

FOUR-CARD SPREAD

This is a simple spread for a quick overall look at a situation.

CARD INTERPRETATIONS:

1. Past - How the past is influencing the present situation.
2. Now - How the situation is affecting you now.
3. Future - Possibilities for the future (about six months).
4. Outcome - Indicates the overall message/lesson; a culmination of everything examined.
