INTRODUCTION

No one could have prepared me for this wonderful project and for the last few years I have fully immersed myself in the world of tarot. I went into it initially completely unaware of the depth and magic that each card can possess.

The Mind's Eye Tarot illustrations are all created by hand using watercolor paper, markers, gold ink and tea. Each drawing is energetically charged with positive and loving energy from myself! I have always enjoyed creating art intuitively so each card has been made in that way. I found that while working on the deck I would take on the emotions of the card. This gave me a deeper understanding of each card and the emotion I wanted to convey in the art.

The symbolism and forms you see in each card were created using the energy and imagination I felt while thinking of the meaning behind each card. For me, the most important thing about this deck is that it tells a story that can guide the user. I drew strong inspiration from the Rider-Waite Tarot deck as that was the first system I became familiar with. I wanted to maintain a lot of the symbolism and structure aligned with it, so that even less experienced readers would be able to use this deck with ease!

“Remember all the answers to your questions are within. Sometimes you just need a little helping hand to find them.”

O • THE FOOL

The Fool is excited to embark on an adventure but is not aware of the lurking danger keeping a close eye on her. In her bag she only carries the essential things she needs to move forward.

The Fool card represents the hope you have inside you just before embarking on a journey. Fearing the unknown can only hold you back and stunt your personal growth.

Upright meaning

The beginning of an adventure or journey.
Freedom of spirit, travel, intuitive creativity.

Reversed meaning

Irresponsibility, thoughtlessness, recklessness.
Walking into danger unaware.

FOUR OF WANDS

The Four of Wands is a special card that represents satisfaction or the attainment of a goal. The card also symbolizes stability and reunions, celebrations and returning home. The card radiates a feeling of warmth and acceptance.

Upright meaning

Stability, marriage, reunions, friendship.

Reversed meaning

Instability, transition, conflict at home.

FIVE OF WANDS

The Five of Wands represents a kind of minor conflict, which may not always be an argument, but rather a competition or a struggle.

Upright meaning

Conflict, aggression, struggle, competition, rivalry, resisting bullying.

Reversed meaning

Avoidance of conflicts, cooperation, peace, surrender.

SIX OF WANDS

The Six of Wands shows a woman returning victorious and triumphant. This card is all about deserved pride, success and recognition for your achievements.

Upright meaning

Success, progress, pride, accolades, victory.

Reversed meaning

Lack of recognition, failure, poor sportsmanship.

SEVEN OF WANDS

The Seven of Wands is all about retaining your position, fighting to stay where you are in order to progress in the future. Standing up for yourself and defending what's yours can sometimes be exhausting and it's easy to feel overwhelmed, but the challenge can also be exhilarating.

Upright meaning

Competition, protectiveness, enjoying a challenge, winning a fight, success at sports.

Reversed meaning

Exhaustion, surrender, defeat.

EIGHT OF WANDS

The Eight of Wands represents quick progression and moving forward towards auspicious new horizons. This card is a symbol of positive and vibrant energy. It represents readiness, expansion, achieving what you desire and enjoying the results of your hard work. Everything you have done so far will soon begin to pay off!

Upright meaning

Progression, expansion preparation for positive changes.

Reversed meanin

Frustration, delays, hastiness.
