LOVE

This is a very powerful love spell, empowered by Aphrodite, the Greek goddess of love. Call on her with this magickal spell and she will aid you in your quest to be cherished and nourished by love. You can further empower the magick of this spell by thanking Aphrodite for her help and by smiling on lovers everywhere. Be a friend to love and she will be a friend to you.

If the Universe sent you this card, know it is now time for you to invest some energy in your love life, into creating more loving energy within your relationships. The Universe is assuring you that love can be yours and that the goddess Aphrodite is willing to help you learn how to open your heart to receive more loving relationships into your life.

If you have chosen this card, you know you are ready for love! You are willing to open up your beautiful heart and welcome divine love into your life. You are also ready to explore the wonder of opening your heart to another soul.

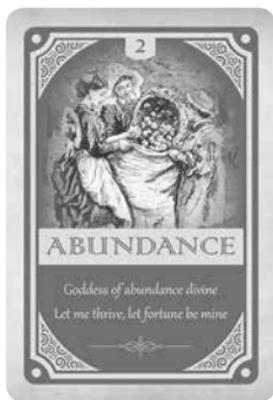

When we cast spells, we never interfere with the free will of another person – so please do not focus your energy on a particular individual. We are preparing our own selves for love and to become more attractive, warm and bright. We never cast a spell on another person, always respect free will and work magick with consent.

APHRODITE'S LOVE SPELL

You will need a red cloth, a red apple and a red candle. Lay the red cloth on your altar. Anoint the red candle with a little rose absolute essential oil (or substitute for another love oil), add it to your altar and light it. Visualise a circle of soft pink light all about you and your altar area. Chant these words three times, on a Friday night. It is best to do this during a new moon, waxing moon or full moon.

*Aphrodite I call to thee
To bring a true love here to me
Bring me kharis, pleasure, happiness
Bring me true love's sweet caress
Open my heart, help me to find
A lover, a soul, faithful, divine
Sensual, strong, sweet and true
All this I do ask of you
Hail love and thee, sweet Aphrodite
By the power of three by three
As I do will, so mote it be.*

Take a few moments to truly feel your heart opening and Aphrodite's energy joining you, empowering your quest for true love. When you feel her presence, hold out your red apple and let her energy enter the apple. Then slowly, with great intent, begin to eat the apple. When you have finished, blow out your candle, sending the energy out into the world. Then see the circle of pink light all about you shimmer, then dissolve, transmuting and being reabsorbed back into the energy of the Universe. Cleanse your space, thank Aphrodite and be ready to welcome true love into your life.

ABUNDANCE

Many of us dwell too often within an energy of lack – of not having enough. And we feel that more – more money, more power, more love – will bring us what it is we think we desire. In order to receive, we must be reconnected to the source of abundance and allow ourselves to be filled with its nourishing energy. When we connect with this energy through casting this spell, we feel open, grateful and ready to receive. We begin to feel worthy of accepting all that the Universe offers us, because we are fulfilled, abundant beings.

If the Universe chose this card, it signifies the very real truth that you are absolutely energetically ready to take the brave step into being more abundant. The simplicity of this spell is akin to the simplicity of opening up to receive more of the goodness life has to offer. The Universe is endlessly abundant. You are the Universe, an eternal part of this energy and as such, you too can create and attract abundance. The Universe is telling you it is time to step away from simply having enough to get by. The Universe is saying there is now plenty for you and is nudging you to do the energetic work which will connect you to the source of plenty and abundance. Casting this spell will help you to accept your own divine right to abundance. Through working magick, you will be able to create more of what it is you want in your life.

If you chose this card, well done. You have realised that simply surviving is not sufficient or worthy enough. You are going to activate the source of abundance within you, and connect to that flow and to that energy. You are now willing to take bold and courageous action to manifest on the physical level more than enough health, love, money, food, wonderful energies, abundant joy and wellbeing, but most of all, plenty. This is such a contrast to the needy energy you have personally experienced and are ready to change. So be thankful, be grateful and be aware that by casting this spell, you are creating abundance and this will help so many more people and beings apart from yourself. There is plenty for everyone in this wonderful world. It is time for you to connect to this source of plenty and abundance.

ABUNDANCE SPELL

You will need nine drops of bergamot oil, Earl Grey tea, nine silver coins, one green candle and some seeds. On a Sunday, when the moon is waxing, cover your altar with a gold cloth. Visualise a circle of golden light all about you, abundant, full of good fortune, pure and good. Blend the nine drops of bergamot oil in a base oil and anoint your candle. Light the candle and arrange the nine silver coins about it. Scatter the seeds on the altar to the outside of the coins. Contemplate opening up to abundance and what that would be like for you – how would you feel, if there was more than enough? How would you enjoy this abundance? What form would it come in? When you can strongly feel this energy of abundance, chant the following three times:

*Lakshmi, abundant one, come to me
I ask for thee to set me free
Golden fortune shine on me now
Goddess show me when and how
Golden Lakshmi, green and gold*

Let me be strong, let me be bold
Goddess of abundance divine
Let me thrive, let abundance be mine
Lakshmi divine, let abundance come to me.
And by the power of three times three
As I do will, so mote it be.

Feel that energy of abundance filling you, and feel Lakshmi's presence, helping you to open up to creating more abundance within your life and to know you are worthy and ready to receive. You may wish to write down what you would most love to manifest in your Book of Shadows and Light. When you have finished writing, see the circle of golden light shimmer, then dissolve, transmuting and being reabsorbed back into the energy of the Universe. Abundance is on its way! Leave your altar set up for an hour or so after this spell. Then blow out the candle and clear the seeds. Place the seeds in the earth, within your garden or within a pot plant. Place the nine silver coins in your wallet or purse, and drink a cup of Earl Grey tea. Earl Grey contains bergamot, which attracts abundance, so have a cup whenever you wish to reignite your abundance.

PROSPERITY

Money and wealth are highly-charged issues in our culture. This simple prosperity spell will help you realise your material desires and needs through the generation of money.

When this spell chooses you, it signifies the simple truth that there need not be any guilt or suffering around obtaining money. Money is simply one form of manifested prosperity and indeed, of energy. You can enjoy money and be a fine person when you understand that it is an energy to be used for positive change.

If you chose this spell, be aware that working with the highest of intentions will bring about the most positive results of all. Remember to thank the Universe in advance.

PROSPERITY SPELL

You will need three green ribbons. Charge these on your altar overnight during a waxing moon and then get ready to head out into nature to complete this spell! Find a thriving, healthy, young tree near you and bind the three green ribbons over its strongest branch. Then whisper this three times:

*As this tree grows so strong, so fine
So may I prosper from the Universal Divine.*

And indeed, while the tree grows, so will you prosper. Leave your ribbons upon the tree, return to the altar and give thanks. When the ribbons have worn through, your wish will have been granted.
